I. M. Simpson sold 80 head of mutton sheep to H. S. Smith for $3.80 a hundred pounds.

Clint Brown returned a few days ago from St. Martin's Springs, somewhat improved in health.

The farmers' picnic at Shady Lane was a grand success in every way. Something doing all the time.

Walter Maxfield and Will Graham are hauling railroad ties to this place from the Bulo mill near King's Valley.

Sam Gross returned home the first of the week from Winlock, Wash., where he has been working in a logging camp.

A very small attendance at the school meeting, Monday. C. E. Staats was re-elected director and Percy Hadley re-elected clerk.

Word was received here Wednesday that Hubert Lewis' son of J. E. Lewis, of Lewisville, was instantly killed by the blowing up of an engine on a boat in the Klondike country. He had been working on the boat as engineer for the last five months.

BRIDGEPORT.

Mrs. Laws went to Portland, Tuesday.

Wilber Lewis is building an addition to his house.

The Dornbecker mill will close down this week for a while.

The picnic at this place was well attended, considering the weather.

home of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Walker.

MRS. A. C. TAYLOR.

Many friends and old neighbors from Perrydale attended the funeral of Mrs. A. C. Taylor at McCoy, Sunday.

No braver battle against disease and pain was ever fought than the struggle of Mrs. Taylor against her fatal malady, cancer. Her good nature and tenderness for others was her strongest hold in patiently bearing the terrible suffering of four long years. No expense was spared to relieve her and she was the recipient of every attention that a devoted husband could bestow.

Here was a useful life. Her mother heart went out to the orphan and she raised her dear sister's little son and daughter to noble manhood and womanhood loving them as her own.

The largest number of people ever gathered in the Bethel cemetery brought a wealth of floral offerings as a tribute of love and respect to this kind neighbor and friend. The bereaved husband and sorrowing family have the sincere sympathy of the community, where, in their beautiful home they passed so many happy years.

POLK.

Haying has begun in earnest. The hay crop will be about this year.

David Peters' new house is nearly completed.

P. F. Kilever left for Missoula, Montana, Monday.

Mr. Windover is making good progress with his new barn.

J. H. Rempel visited friends at Pratum, Marion county, last Sunday.

Contractors are around engaging the prune crop at from 4 to 4½ cents a pound.

You can't tell a woman's age after she takes Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Her complexion is fine. She is round, plump, and handsome; in fact, she is young again. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Belt & Cherrington.

The effect of Scott's Emulsion on thin, pale children is magical. It makes them plump, rosy, active, happy. It contains Cod Liver Oil, Hypophosphites and Glycerine, to make fat, blood and bone, and so put together that it is easily digested by little folk.

MEETINGS HAVE BEGUN

Large Crowds Hear Evangelist Martin at Christian Church Tabernacle.

Tuesday night, the Christian church held the first of its series of evangelistic meetings in the tabernacle just north of the church building. These meetings will be continued indefinitely, and there is little doubt that the citizens of Dallas will be highly pleased with the preaching of the evangelist, Dr. S. M. Martin, of Seattle. Dr. Martin, as an evangelist, stands in a class by himself. He is broad, positive and independent. As a speaker he is logical and deep, without being tedious; witty, without being irreverent; his deep, rich voice adds a charm to his speaking, that holds the attention of his audience. His method of work will, doubtless, reach and touch the public.

The medicine that sets the whole world thinking. The remedy on which all doctors agree. The prescription all your friends are taking. Is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Belt & Cherrington.
